Congressman Amos Cummings, of New York, is as vigorous an opponent to an income tax as Bourke Cochran. He arrived in the city during the night, and discussing such a provision in the tariff bill, said that if carried the democrats could not elect a single member of congress in the districts of New York ontside of the city, and that at least two of those in the city would be shut out.

Now that Grover seems inclined to monkey with the gear, all the machinery will be thrown will have to come later, in the nature of amendments. These are some of the perplexities which confront the gentlemen of the ways and means majority at the present writing.

A CHICAGO BANKER

Tackled by a Crank Who Demands $10,000 at the Point of a Revolver.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.-James R. Walker, of the Tacoma Safety Deposit Vault Co., was confronted with a revolver in his handsome residence, 1796 Prairie evenue, Thursday evening, and asked to deliver over his check for $19,000. It was at 6:30 o'clock that a man with a blonde mustache, standing about five feet nine inches, well dressed, wearing a good overcoat, walked up the front steps to his magnificent residence and

The girl came to the door in answer to the call. The man asked if Mr. Walker was in, and, being told that he was walked into the parlor, saying that he would like to see him.

The girl called Mr. Walker downtairs, and when he entered the room the fellow, who knew him, said:

He drew a large revolver, and, point-ing it at Mr. Walker's breast, said in a loud tone: "Write me a check for $10,-000, and hand it over, or I will put a hole through your heart."

Mr. Walker is a large man, and with his presence of mind thought he could cope with the would-be robber under his prevailing excitement.

The muzzle of the pistol was close to his heart, so he raised his left arm to protect himself, and knocked it away, at the same time opening the door that led to the street with the other hand. He then gave the fellow a shove and he rolled down the steps and out on the walk, still clutching the revolver in his hand. The door was then closed by Mr. Walker, while he went immediately to the telephone to notify the police station.

The man got up right away, ran down Prairie avenue and disappeared. About 9 o'clock he was located in a room on Twenty-second street and placed under arrest.

Eao Released on Ball.

NEW YORS, Nov. 23.—John C. Eno, charged with the embezzlement of funds of the Second National bank, of which he was president in 1884, was held to the United States grand jury Friday under $50,000 ball, to appear when called upon. His bondsmen are John H. Blodgood, proprietor of the Fifth avenue hotel, and Albert R. Darling. At the examination before a com missioner be consented to waive examination. A few minutes later a note was received from Col. Bliss stating that he preferred to go before the grand jury with the case, and requesting that the bail be allowed to stand.

Triple Tragedy.

KANKAKEK, Ill., Nov. 25.—Jesse D. O. Smith, a former merchant of this city, murdered his divorced wife and Mrs. Graybill and then shot himself. Both women were shot through the hears, and death was instantaneous. Smith then shot himself in the head, but the bullet glanced and injured him only alightly. He then went to his boarding house, about a half a mile distant, and shot himself through the right temple three minutes before the sheriff arrived. Jealousy a the probable cause. Mrs. Smith secured a divorce from her husband this summer, and she and Mrs. Graybill lived together. Graybill and then shot himself. Both

Three of the most progninent denicorats on the ways and means committee, namely, Chairman Wilson. Bourke Cockran and Stevens, are in line with President Cleveland, and will fight against such a bill to the last. This is discouraging to the Bynum men, who discouraging to the Bynum men, who Without some sort of ballast the democratic balloon can not go up, and they are in a queer fix.
